

REBECCA gilmore

WEB DEVELOPER

[Objective] _____

I am a self-taught developer who has devoted the past 8 months of my life to learning Front End Web Development. I quit my job and moved to Thailand to focus specifically on pivoting my life towards development. I am now at a point where I feel confident I can add value to an employer. I am moving back to the US and want to begin my development career in Seattle. With so many incredible Startups, I know there will never be a shortage of challenges to overcome and I cannot wait!

[Education] _____

FRONT END DEVELOPMENT TRAINING

Codecademy- Front End Developer Courses (150 Hrs)

Code School- Front End Developer Path (200+hours)

Lynda.com- Web design with Adobe Photoshop CC (10hrs)

Lynda.com- Web design with Adobe Illustrator CC (8 hrs)

- I found doing practice exercises in Javascript to be the most beneficial after digesting all the information from the courses. See some examples here.
